

69th Professional Agricultural Workers Conference

Call For Papers

Empowering Underserved Farmers and Rural Communities through Effective Farm Bill Legislation, USDA Program Delivery and New Market
Opportunities and Partnerships

Contributed papers, workshops, posters, and special sessions on the conference theme are currently being accepted. We are also accepting papers and posters that focus on issues related to rural development, small farms, biotechnology, food and nutrition, health, small business and entrepreneurial development, faith-based initiatives, youth development, international development, etc. Please email abstracts to: pawc@mytu.tuskegee.edu by October 15. Abstracts should be in the following format:

- One-half page
- Single-space
- Title
- Author(s) (Presenter's name underlined)
- Institution or organization
- Contact information (address, phone number, email address)

You will receive notification of your paper status no later than October 20, 2011.